Special Guest Craig Boddington

Craig Boddington is without doubt the most recognized big game hunter in the world today. Few hunters alive have the international hunting experience that Boddington has accumulated in a career dedicated to the shooting and hunting sports. Boddington's hunting roots were firmly planted in his home state of Kansas, where he cut his hunting teeth on small game, upland birds, and waterfowl, and finally progressing to whitetail deer. The mid 1960's saw Boddington expand his hunting horizons as he traveled to Wyoming and Colorado in search of mule deer and pronghorn.

In addition to his big game hunting accomplishments, Craig Boddington is the most prolific outdoor writer and book author of the present day. The author of 18 books and more than 2500 magazine articles, Boddington's straightforward writing style has made him the most popular outdoor writer in the business today.
